Smithsonian

Smithsonian Education is providing free, quality resources and personalized help at learninglab.si.edu/distancelearning.

Our resources focus on pre-K through 12 education, and include lesson plans tied to national learning standards and a variety of low-tech and no-tech solutions for students without reliable internet access.

Caregivers can find activities designed specifically for them to work with their children at home.

The Smithsonian Learning Lab will expand its online office hours with experts to answer questions and help identify lessons and activities for specific needs.

While our spaces are closed, explore millions of objects, artworks, specimens, books and archival material online at si.edu/collections. #SmithsonianEdu
